

MAKE SURE YOUR MESSAGE IS HEARD! Advertise at the 2010 National School-Based Health Care Convention

Whether you want to commemorate NASBHC's 15th anniversary, show support for school-based health centers, or market your services, the NASBHC Convention program is the place to do it!

For reasonable rates, we will feature your message in a prominent position in the program, the central source for information during the event.

Here are the details:

All ads are black and white, placed in their own section, which is prominently marked in the program. We prefer that copy and artwork come from the advertiser, but we can help with layout if needed.
